Class History

We started our high school life in 1952, very excited in being Freshmen. We had bake sales, sold school emblems, and held a dance after one of the basketball games. Our class officers were: Steve Bodnar, President; Sonny Day, Vice-President; Marge Chozinski, Secretary; Judy White, Treasurer.

In our Sophomore year the officers were: President, Pat Fuhrman; Vice-President, Marge Chozinski; Secretary, Al Paracsi; Treasurer, Steve Bodnar. We had bake sales, and a spring dance in April. Though we tried hard, we didn't accumulate a lot of money.

So in our Junior year we buckled down to work. We sold peanut brittle and peppermints, had bake sales and sold refreshments at the football and basketball games. In addition, we held a dance in December and put on a play, "Imagination." Our Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Hotel Antlers in the Peacock Room. The theme was "Moonlight and Roses." Our officers were: Al Paracsi, President; Steve Bodnar, Vice-President; Bonnie Solomon, Secretary; Don Minnick, Treasurer. In the first part of the year Steve Bodnar, Mary Ann Toth, Ray Minsterman, Al Paracsi, and Judy White were inducted into the National Honor Society.

At the beginning of our Senior year we had $1,000 in our treasury, which proved that we could really work. We held a dance in October, which we called "Autumn Leaves." Also in October we selected our class rings. We did a great deal of work on the annual and rehearsed for three one-act plays which were to be given in December. We are anticipating a pleasant time at the Junior-Senior Prom. Our class officers this year were: President, Steve Bodnar; Vice-President, Donald Minnick; Secretary, Bonnie Solomon; Treasurer, Mary Ann Toth.

Though we are looking forward to graduation in May, we will miss the good times and leave with pleasant memories of our high school years.

Class Prophecy

As soon as graduation exercises were over I ran to the back of the auditorium to find my parents. As soon as I found them, my Dad said, "Congratulations, Carol," and handed me an envelope. I opened it as fast as I could, and found a check for One Million Dollars payable to Carol Oniga. At first I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw that huge sum of money. After a few years of wondering what I would do with all of that money I decided to take a tour of the European countries. The first thing I did was rush down to the airport to get my ticket. After purchasing my ticket I went home to pack my luggage for my flight was leaving at nine-thirty, and it didn't give me much time to get ready.

It took only a few moments to arrange for my luggage to be picked up. In a few hours I found myself standing in the lobby of the airport. As I started up the steps of the plane I noticed a lovely young lady, who was the stewardess collecting tickets, and much to my surprise it was Barbara Wilson. I was discussing old times with her and she mentioned that Jim Blazina and Art DeChant were piloting the plane. During the flight, I heard this woman laughing and giggling so I turned around to see her. She had diamonds from head to foot and furs everywhere you looked. As I looked at her, I saw that it was Charlene Nemeth, I found out that she was going home to Switzerland to see her fifth multi-millionaire husband, John Hambly.

After a few hours in the air we developed motor trouble and were forced to land in Germany for repairs. After a light lunch I went looking for relaxation in the Golden Cup Theater. The first act was an impressionist doing various imitations of well known Chinese actors, to my amazement it was Darryl Nore.

After the show was over, I went back to the hotel and went into the lounge and there was a very nice band. As I started to walk closer to the stage I saw it was my old friend from high school, Deanna Minnich. Afterwards she came to my table and told me that she was working here part time, because she was going to appear the next week in the Metropolitan Opera.

While we were listening to the band leader, I thought that he reminded me of someone in high school, but I couldn't think of his name. Then I remembered, the sign said, "Danny Walker and the Suttonnaires." I almost fainted because he was now about six feet tall.

The next day I started to take in the sights of the town, I thought that I needed a new hairdo, so I went to the most famous shop in Germany, Herr Karl Kessler. I walked into the shop and he was working on a lovely girl with long blonde hair. When she turned around I saw that it was Irene Biro. She was getting her hair bleached as usual. After I said "Hi," to them, I went into the next booth to get my hair done.

When I got back from the beauty shop there was an invitation from the Maharaja Steve Bodnar, inviting me out to dinner with his six wives. Then I saw that his wives were Shirley Cromwell, Pat Nestick, who were the head of the dancers, Sandra Drompp and Avonelle Smith, who were the Maharaja's favorite dancers. Audrey White was the head of the harem. While we chatted over the dinner table, he told me that this dinner was to celebrate his new wife, Pat Fuhrman.

Class Will

We, the 1956, graduating class of Brookside, being of wretched mind but sound body, knowing of the terrific effect of our wills on the bequeathed and after incessant thought, do hereby bequeath our wordly possessions in this, our last will and testament:

- I, Jim Banjoff, will my ability to get along with the girls to Richard Krause.
- I, Jim Blazina, will my long hair to Mr. Barr.
- I, Irene Biro, leave my hoop skirt to Mr. Sutton.
- I, Steve Bodnar, will my "golden throwing arm" to Bill Garrard.
- I, Eleanor Caley, leave my loud voice to Mrs. Gratchen.
- I, Marge Chozinski, leave my ability to understand Latin to anyone who needs it.
- I, Phyllis Cifranic, leave 10 free driving lessons to Clifford Allen.
- We, Shirley Cromwell and Jean Novotny, will leave together.
- I, Art DeChant, leave my bashfulness to Dick Bonar.
- I, Sandra Drompp, will my ability to not get on the honor roll to my brother, Tom.
- I, Don Emert, will my ability to understand chemistry to Dennis Davis.
- I, Pat Furhman, will my long hair to Carole Gaborick.
- I, Mark Gorse, will leave.
- I, Dick Gove, will my car to Evans Junk Yard.
- I, Karen Griffore, leave my big brown eyes to anyone who would like them.
- I, John Hambly, will my motorcycle to anyone who wants it.
- I, Jerry Hicks, will my football ability to my brother, Bill.
- I, Jerry Logar, leave my car to my brother, Bob.
- I, Louise Long, leave my "gift of gab" to Margaret Phillips.
- I, Deanna Minnich, will my blush to my sister Elayne.
- I, Don Minnick, leave my bag of patching plaster to the school to fix the ceilings.
- I, Ray Minsterman, leave my Hi-Y sweater to the Tri-Hi-Y.
- I, Charlene Nemeth, will leave ceramics class sorry that it was only one period long.
- I, Darryll Nore, leave my barrel of slugs to the underclassmen for use in the school ice cream machine.
- I, Carol Oniga, leave my ability to carry on the German accent to Cathy Altieri.
- I, Don Patterson, will my ability as an athlete to all future athletes.

Class Prophecy

After dinner, which was served by Phyllis Cifranic, the maid, we went to a night club, the Brookside Ballroom, located in Sheffield, Germany.

The entertainment was very good which was furnished by two great dancers doing their bubble dance with colored bubbles. I certainly was surprised to see Don Emert and Mary Ann Toth under them.

Another act that was very good was put on by Eleanor Caley and Dick Slavik, doing their wonderful version of the Beer Barrel Polka. Afterwards, I decided to go home by taxi and to my amazement it was owned by Karen Griffore. While chatting I learned that Marge Chozinski and Jim Banjoff, had recently remarried for the eighth time, both solemnly promising that this was their last. I laughed because I knew that they couldn't make a go of it.

When I reached my hotel who should be waiting for me but Jerry Hicks and his wife, Bonnie Solomon, with their six kids. I was certainly surprised to see them. They told me that they had just come from visiting Mark Gorse and Jean Novotny's mansion which had just recently been bought.

When I got back to my room at the hotel, I found a telegram under the door. It was from the airport saying the plane was leaving tomorrow, at 8 a. m.

We were on the plane now for almost 10 hours, and I was getting awfully tired of sitting. Finally we landed in Rome, Italy.

After searching for a modern hotel, I found a crowd of teenage children all shouting. In the midst of them I saw Judy White. She told me that after years of saving she finally saved enough money to take a Latin class to Rome.

Where ever you walked in Rome, all you heard of were the Five Dare Devil Drivers. I thought what a thrill it would be to see the World Famous Drivers. Over the loud speaker they named the drivers. They were Don Patterson, Jerry Logar, Larry Wickham, Richard Gove and Eric Sager. I could hardly believe my ears.

The races were on for a few minutes and car No. 13 tipped over and the announcer said it was Eric Sager. A young nurse ran out and I knew at once that it was Louise Long.

I left the race track after that accident in a hurry. I was so disgusted and homesick that I went straight down to the hotel and booked passage on the S.S. Havanna Steam Boat for the U.S.A.

On the boat I met my two old friends from high school, Don Minnick and Ray Minsterman. As we talked about old times, Don and Ray told me that they were just coming home from an expedition trip in Zululand.

After arriving home we bade farewell. As I started to walk to the taxi I thought it was certainly nice seeing all of my old classmates again after so many years.

THE END

Carol Oniga.

Class Will

- I, Eric Sager, leave my water skis and guitar to my brother, Flip.
- I, Richard Slavik, will my artistic ability to anyone who can't draw.
- I, Avonelle Smith, will my music ability to my niece, Dianne.
- I, Bonnie Solomon, leave my height to Sandy Ryder.
- I, Mary Ann Toth, leave my four years of cheerleading to the Reserve cheerleaders.
- I, Dan Walker, leave my height to Mike Moore.
- I, Audrey White, leave my natural curly hair to my sister, Betty.
- I, Judy White, leave my good times at BHS to my sister, Kathleen.
- I, Larry Wickham, will my menagerie of animals to my brother, Ray.
- I, Barb Wilson, leave my helpful parents to the 8th and 10th graders.

To the teachers, we leave:

- Mr. Barr, a helpful Senior class next year.
- Mr. Verbanek, a "black leather jacket with an eagle on the back."
- Mrs. Barr, our sincere thanks.
- Miss Sauer, all the showers the Senior girls didn't take
- Mrs. Garber, the key to the ice cream machine during Tri-Hi-Y meetings only.
- Mr. Sevits, we the Senior girls will take him.
- Mr. Sutton, a fire extinguisher and air purifier for use in the Lab
- Mr. Smith and Mr. Sellers, we, the Senior girls will leave them our names and addresses, hoping they will be used in the future.
- Mrs. Gratchen, a microphone to save her delicate voice.
- Mrs. Prutton, a nice quiet home room.
- Mr. Browning, an Italian styled jersey for next year's football season.
- Mr. Kolinski, a gold plaque engraved, Silence Is Golden, to help keep the band members quiet.
- Mrs. Knorek, memories that the Latin class had back in '54 and '55.
- Mrs. Shaw, Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians for a day.

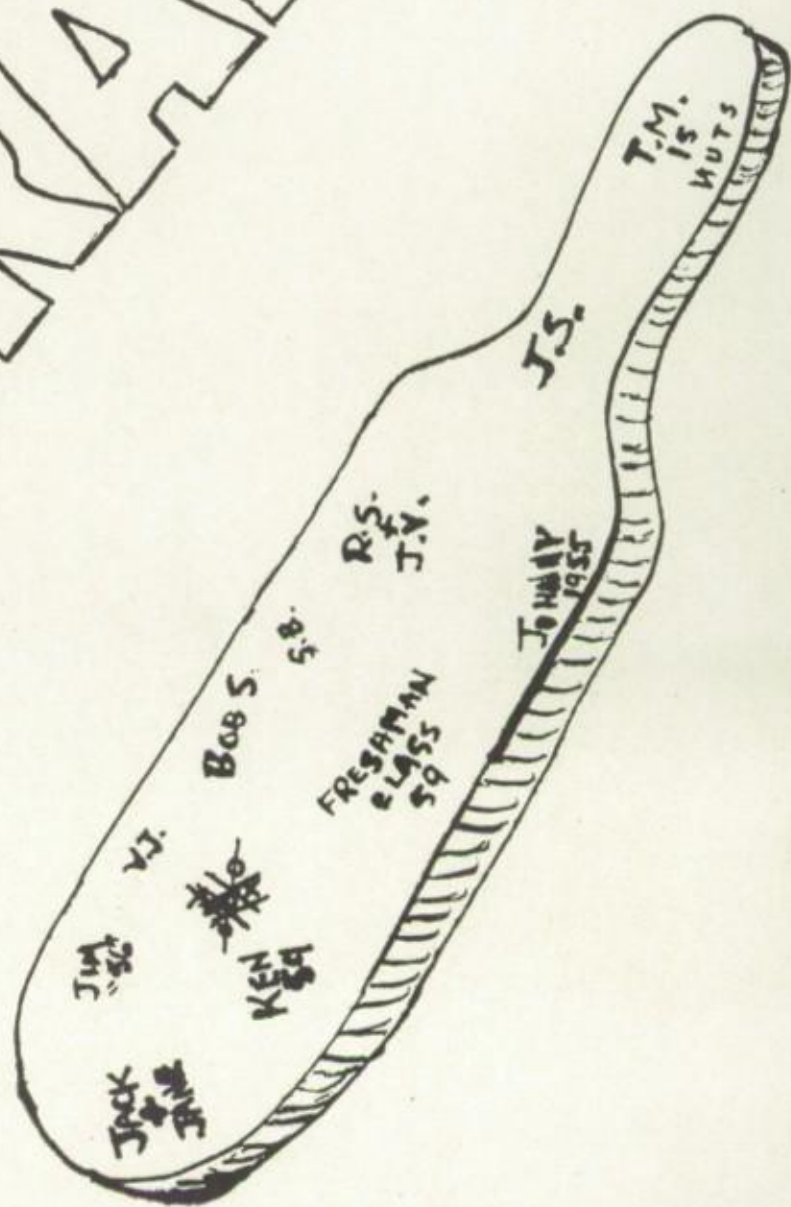

To our underclassmen we leave:

- Eighth graders, our ability to get along with people.
- Freshmen, we leave our athletic ability.
- Sophomores, our ability to get out of class.
- Juniors, our humility.

We the Senior Class of 1956, in the presence of our psychiatrist and fellow cellmates have signed and sealed our last will and testament, this 22nd day of May in the year of our Lord, 1956.

Can You Imagine?

Charlene not getting kicked out of Economics class?
The faculty beating the Reserve in basketball?
Seniors getting together after graduation?
Chemistry class without that "one" girl? Guess who!
Paper getting out on time?
Mr. Sutton and Joe Weisheit as a dance team?
The Band playing the Funeral March?
Senior boys not making faces at the Senior girls?
The gym with a balcony?
The office without a door?
The halls without armed guards?
The Juniors getting along as good as the Seniors?
Eric typing in an office?
Steve not being "athletic"?
Joe not "fighting" with Judy over the newspaper?
The teachers "moondogging"?
The annual without the annual STAFF?
A Junior dance not being successful?
Seniors getting all A's in Economics?

P.T.A. 1955 - 56

This year the P.T.A. gave the annual Christmas party for the grade children. They purchased two electric roasters, sponsored the National Honor Society tea, endorsed flashers on all school railroad crossings, and are raising $300.00 for a school project.

The money was raised by selling sandwiches at school each Thursday and a monthly bake sale.

Officers for this year were: President, Mrs. Mary Toth; Vice-President, Mrs. Earl Morse; Second Vice-President, William Barr; Third Vice-President, John Verbanek; Secretary, Alice Knorek; Treasurer, Mrs. John Opfer.

Brookside opened its last six-man campaign with Berlin Heights in an independent tilt and lost in a hard fought battle 27-20. The second game, also independent, the Cards romped all over their rivals Avon by a score of 30-6. The Cards opened their league against South Amherst and scored an impressive victory by a 44-6 score. The next game with Firelands was supposed to be the toughest game on the Cards' schedule. They were keyed up so they ran all over Firelands by a score of 51-18. After that game the Cards were in good shape for the league championship. The next game with Columbia, the Cards kept their high point total going by scoring a 42-14 victory and tromping LaGrange 58-12. The Cards last game with Avon was to determine the championship and upset by Avon 26-20. It was a successful season after all ending with a 5-2 record.

Individual scores as follows:

Jerry Hicks	85
Steve Bodnar	66
Jim Blazina	66
Don Minnich	13
Jack Dombroski	37

Brookside opened its 55-56 basketball campaign with four returning lettermen. Big things were expected of the team but they dropped their opening game and hopes fell a little. From that time on the Cards lost only two games until tournament time. They ended the league with a 7-1 record to share the championship with Firelands. The Cards won their first tournament game but bowed out in the semi-finals. They ended the season a 13-4 record. The following boys, Jim Blazina, Jerry Hicks, Steve Bodnar, Don Minnick, Art DeChant and Jim Banjoff are graduating but the returning boys should provide tough competition in the league next year.
